Important things you should know

Your duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation

We will ask you questions before we agree to insure you or renew, extend, or vary your Policy. When answering those questions and providing information to us you have a legal duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to us.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you or until we agree to renew, extend, or vary your Policy.

The answers and information you provide to us are relevant to our decision to insure you so it is very important that you answer all of the questions fully, honestly and accurately.

We may consider that you have breached your legal duty if any of the answers or information you provide to us are inaccurate, false or misleading, or if you withhold information from us.

When you receive an insurance renewal, we will ask you if any of the information you have previously provided for your Policy has changed. We will ask you to tell us about any change to this information or confirm that there is no change. At that time you also have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to us.

Again, the answers and information you provide when you receive an insurance renewal are relevant to our decision to insure you so it is very important that you answer them fully, honestly and accurately and that you provide the correct information.

If you breach your duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation

It is very important that you answer all of our questions fully, honestly and accurately as there can be significant consequences if you fail to do so.

If you breach your duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation, we may cancel your Policy or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your breach is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the Policy as if it never existed.

Your responsibility

It is your responsibility to take reasonable care to give us the correct information.

Please check any Certificate of Insurance we send you to make sure the information you have given us is correct.

If more than one person is named as the Insured on the Certificate of Insurance, we will treat any statement, act, omission or claim made by any one of those people as a statement, act, omission or claim by all of those persons.

Joint Holders of a Policy

If more than one person is named as the Insured on the Certificate of Insurance, each person is a joint holder of the Policy and referred to as a Co-Insured.

Each Co-Insured authorises us to share their personal information and information regarding the Policy with the other Co-Insured(s). You may revoke this authorisation at any time during the term of the Policy by contacting us.

Each Co-Insured may make changes to the Policy, but they are not allowed to remove the other Co-Insured(s) from the Policy without consent of the other Co-Insured(s). If you seek to cancel or make changes to a Policy, we may consult with any other Co-Insured but we are not obliged to.

Delegated Authority

A Delegated Authority is someone who is appointed by you to act on your behalf. Delegated Authorities are authorised to enquire about and make adjustments to a Policy and to lodge and manage claim(s) on behalf of you. Delegated Authorities are not permitted to initiate or cancel a Policy. Delegated Authorities can only be appointed by written or verbal authority of the Insured, and the authority will continue until a written or verbal request is made to remove the authority.

Information which may affect your Policy

During the term of your Policy, you must tell us immediately if there has been a change to any of the following:

- the structural integrity of the Rental Property, including whether it is or will be materially renovated or subject to demolition;
- wall and roof materials used in the Rental Property;

- condition of the Rental Property including any existing or subsequent damage or loss;
- claims history relating to you and any Co-Insured (including where any subsequent claims are denied under a different policy); and/or
- the Lease Agreement including termination, assignment, renewal or expiry.

If a change to any of these factors occurs:

- you may need to make a change to your Policy;
- you may need to pay an additional Premium and/or Excess;
- we may cancel your Policy; and/or
- we may decide not to renew your Policy.

If you do not advise us of these changes and we find out, we may cancel your Policy or reduce the amount we will pay for a claim under this Policy.

Please consider the terms of this PDS and our target market determination to ensure this Policy is right for you.

Cooling-off Period

If you are not happy with the cover you have chosen, we offer a Cooling-off Period of 21 days. This means you can cancel your Policy within 21 days of the Inception Date set out on your Certificate of Insurance (Cooling-off Period) by telling us and requesting cancellation. If you cancel during the Cooling-off Period, and you have not made a claim within the Cooling-off Period, we will give you a full refund of any Premium you have paid. If you make a claim during the Cooling-off Period, you are deemed to have waived your right to cancel the Policy.

If you do not tell us of your decision to cancel within the Cooling-off Period, the Policy will remain active from the Inception Date and you must pay your Premium. Failure to pay your Premium, if due within the Cooling-off Period, will not constitute a request to cancel your Policy.

The Cooling-off Period is only applicable for new business and does not apply to renewal of a Policy.

The amount of the Premium will depend on a number of factors including, for example, details of your Insured Property. This is described further on pages 11–12.

If you make a claim under the Policy you may be required to contribute to the cost of the claim by paying what is known as an Excess. This is described further on pages 15–17.

If you make a claim, and you then withdraw your claim or we refuse to accept it, you may be required to pay any costs we have incurred in connection with processing the claim. This is described further on page 57.

Will the Policy cover a strata title?

If the Rental Property is under strata title, we will not provide cover for the Building. Rental Property benefits and cover for your Rental Furnishings will still be available.

Does my Policy cover Business Activity?

If there is any Business Activity or purpose other than Permanent Rental or Short Stay (Holiday) Rental conducted At the Rental Property you must disclose this information to us as we may not offer a Policy to cover this, or additional conditions may apply to your Policy (for example, exclusions or additional Excess requirements). This includes situations where the Tenant operates a Business Activity from the Rental Property. You must make reasonable enquiries of your Tenant to determine whether they use or intend to use the Rental Property for a Business Activity.

If we agree the Business Activity At the Rental Property is acceptable, it will be noted on your Certificate of Insurance and this may affect your Premium.

Sum Insured

The Policy will Cover you for damage or loss to the Insured Property for an amount up to the Sum Insured stated on your Certificate of Insurance, subject to the limits set out in this PDS.

You are responsible for calculating the Sum Insured on the cost of replacing your Insured Property as new.

If you do not have an adequate Sum Insured, you may be out of pocket if you suffer loss or damage to your Insured Property.

Our Sum Insured valuation calculator tool on our website raa.com.au may assist you with calculating your Sum Insured. This calculator is to be used as a guide only, it does not constitute personal advice and will not take into account individual circumstances or preferences.

We recommend that you seek expert advice to determine an adequate replacement Sum Insured for your Insured Property.

When we provide you with a renewal notice for your Policy we may recommend an increase to your Sum Insured in line with claims cost inflation trends. An increase to your Sum Insured may result in an increase to your Premium. Your renewal notice will specify the current Sum Insured and any recommended increase to the Sum Insured for renewal. However, you need to consider whether the Sum Insured is sufficient for your situation. If you do not wish to apply the recommended increase to your Sum Insured, just notify us and we will apply your original Sum Insured to your renewal. It is your responsibility to satisfy yourself that you have an adequate Sum Insured for your Insured Property.

Even though you have a Sum Insured, the value of actual loss or damage you may suffer will be determined at the time of the claim and will include the application of various principles as set out in the claim section on pages 55–60.

If you over-insure and your Sum Insured is greater than the cost of repairing, replacing or rebuilding your Building and/or Rental Furnishings we will not refund any Premium, so it is important that you make sure your Sum Insured is right for you.

What if I also stay or live in the Rental Property?

This Policy only applies to Insured Property which as its primary purpose is used or made available as a Rental Property. The primary purpose will not be as a Rental Property if:

- you or a Co-Insured are using the Rental Property as your residential premises during the term of the Policy; or
- where you have a Short Stay (Holiday) Rental, you or a Co-Insured use or occupy the Rental Property more than 50% of the time available for occupation, unless we have agreed to Cover you and this is noted on your Certificate of Insurance.

Waiting Period

A Waiting Period may apply in relation to certain types of Insured Events. If a Waiting Period applies to an Insured Event you cannot make a claim for loss or damage you have suffered in connection with that Insured Event if it occurred during the Waiting Period. Where a Waiting Period applies it is specified in the description of the Insured Event (on pages 35–42).

The Waiting Periods will not apply if your Policy commenced immediately after:

- the expiry of another Policy that insured the same Insured Property, (regardless of the occupancy type); or
- your purchase of the Insured Property.

Credit provider's rights

If we decide to pay cash for a claim and your Building is mortgaged or subject to any finance, we may be required to pay some or all of this amount to the credit provider shown on your Certificate of Insurance.

Defined Terms

All capitalised terms used throughout this PDS have the definition as set out in the Glossary on page 68. We have also included definitions for 'you', 'your', 'we', 'our' and 'us' in the Glossary.

About the Premium

Premium

The Premium is the amount you pay for the Policy.

All Premiums include any compulsory government statutory charges, levies, duties and taxes where applicable. A minimum Premium applies for every Policy.

The information you give us may affect how the risk is assessed, and therefore the amount of the Premium payable. Check your Certificate of Insurance to make sure all information is true and correct. If the information is not true and correct, call us immediately on 8202 4567.

How we calculate the Premium for insurance

The base Premium that you pay for your Policy will depend on the following factors (among others):

Premium Factor	Possible Impact
Sum Insured	A higher Sum Insured will normally attract a higher Premium.
Discounts	you may qualify for one or more of the discounts offered by us.
Construction materials used for your Building	Properties made of materials of varying costs and durability may attract different Premiums.
Amount of Basic Excess selected	Your Premium may be affected by the amount of Basic Excess selected.
Location of your Rental Property	The location of your Rental Property may affect your Premium (e.g. a high bushfire or Flood zone).
Management of your Rental Property	The way in which your Rental Property is managed may attract different Premiums.
Occupancy of your Rental Property	The occupancy status or periods of occupancy of your Rental Property may attract different Premiums.
Rental amount	Rental Properties generating different rental amounts may attract different Premiums.
Age of Insured(s) and Co-Insured(s)	The age of Insured(s) and Co-Insured(s) may affect premium.

Premium Factor	Possible Impact
Claim History of Insured(s) and Co-Insured(s)	Claim history of Insured(s) and Co-insured(s) may attract different Premiums.
Whether your Rental Property is subject to finance	Your Premium may be affected if you have taken out a loan for your Rental Property.
Year your Rental Property was built	The year your Home was built may attract a lower or higher premium.

Changes in Premium

Each time you renew your Policy, your Premium is likely to change, even if the details of your Insured Property or your personal circumstances have not changed. This is because Premiums are affected by many factors including:

- new and updated data we use to calculate the Premium;
- the cost of claims we have paid and expect to pay in the future;
- any changes in government taxes, levies or charges; and
- the cost of running our business.

Payment of Premium

You may elect to pay your Premium up-front or by instalments.

Upfront payment

You must pay your Premium in full by the due date shown on your Certificate of Insurance. If you do not pay the Premium by the due date, we may cancel the Policy by written notice to you.

Pay by instalments

If you have a 12 month Policy term you can pay your Premium by instalments via a monthly direct debit from your bank account or credit card.

You are responsible for ensuring your account/credit card has sufficient clear funds to pay each debit on the day it is due. We may deduct two payments in the first month, depending on your monthly payment date.

About the Premium (continued)

If you fail to pay an instalment and it remains unpaid for:

- 14 days, we may refuse or limit our liability to pay your claim until you pay the outstanding instalments; or
- more than 1 month, we may cancel your Policy with immediate effect by written notice to you.

A copy of our Direct Debit Request Service Agreement is available from raa.com.au

Outstanding Premium following Total Loss

If your Insured Property is a Total Loss, then following settlement of your Claim:

- this Policy will be cancelled with no refund of your Premium; and
- you will be required to pay the applicable Excesses and any outstanding Premium (including any remaining monthly instalments for the term of the Policy).

Alteration or cancellation of your Policy

Altering your Policy

You may ask us to change your Policy at any time.

Where that change results in a change to your Premium, we will not charge or refund any amount unless it results in a change to your total Premium of $20 or more.

Cooling-off

You can cancel your Policy during the Cooling-off Period provided you have not made a Claim. If you cancel your Policy during the Cooling-off Period, we will cancel the Policy on the date you tell us that you are Cooling-off. We will refund all Premium paid by you, however we will not Cover you under this Policy.

If you cancel your Policy

You can cancel your Policy at any time after the Cooling-off Period.

If you cancel your Policy after the Cooling-off Period, the cancellation takes effect on the date you tell us or any future date you give us. We will continue to Cover you under this Policy until the effective date of your cancellation. If you have paid your Premium up front, we will refund any Premium applicable to the term following cancellation, as long as it is $20 or more. If you have been paying by instalments, we will cancel any further direct debits, but we will not refund your Premium.

If we cancel your Policy

We may cancel your Policy at any time by written notice to you as permitted by law or this PDS, including where you fail to make payments, or fail to disclose important information to us. We will continue to Cover you under this Policy until the date of cancellation notified to you.

If you have paid your Premium up front, we will refund any Premium applicable to the term following cancellation, as long as it is $20 or more. If you have been paying by instalments, we will cancel any further direct debits, but we will not refund any Premium paid.

If your Policy is void

If you or any Co-Insured or anyone acting on your or their behalf has fraudulently failed to disclose or misrepresented information to us at the time of taking out your Policy, we may void the Policy from its inception (treat the Policy as if it never existed) in accordance with the Insurance Contracts Act 1984. If we void the Policy, we will refund any Premium paid in respect of the Policy and we will not Cover you under this Policy.

Excess

If you make a claim, you may be required to pay a contribution towards the claim. This is known as an Excess. There are different types of Excess which may apply at the time of the claim. The type(s) of Excess which apply to your Policy will be shown on your Certificate of Insurance.

Basic Excess

A Basic Excess is the amount you have agreed to pay as a contribution if you make any claim. Unless otherwise specified in this PDS, the amount payable as your Basic Excess will be the same for all claims as shown on your Certificate of Insurance. We may increase your Basic Excess on renewal of your Policy. Any change will be stated on your renewal notice and as RAA provides flexible Excess options, you may change the amount of your Basic Excess by contacting RAA.

Your Basic Excess will be replaced by a Tenant Excess in the circumstances set out below.

Tenant Excess

The following types of Tenant Excess could apply to your Policy:

Tenant Damage Excess

A specific Excess applies for all claims relating to Accidental Loss or Damage, Malicious Damage and Intentional Damage caused by a Tenant or Guest of a Tenant (Tenant Damage Excess). This Excess amount is shown on your Certificate of Insurance. The Tenant Damage Excess replaces your Basic Excess.

Tenant Theft/Burglary Excess

A specific Excess applies for all claims relating to burglary, Theft or attempted Theft by a Tenant or Guest of a Tenant (Tenant Theft/Burglary Excess). This Excess amount is shown on your Certificate of Insurance. The Tenant Theft/Burglary Excess will replace your Basic Excess.

Tenant Default Excess

A specific Excess applies for all claims relating to Tenant Default, Tenant death and loss of Rent due to Tenant Hardship (Tenant Default Excess). This Excess amount is shown on your Certificate of Insurance. The Tenant Default Excess replaces your Basic Excess.

Additional Excess

Earthquake Excess

If you claim for loss or damage arising from an earthquake, an Excess in addition to your Basic Excess will apply as shown on your Certificate of Insurance.

Non-removable Excess

Other Non-removable Excess(es) may apply to your Policy. These are an additional Excess which may apply to your Policy as a result of an individual risk review, or information relating to:

- your Insured Property;
- your or a Co-Insured's claims history; and/or
- the Occupancy of the Rental Property.

A Non-removable Excess may apply on inception. It may also be added upon renewal of your Policy to reflect any change to the above information.

The amount of any Non-removable Excess will be shown on your Certificate of Insurance, together with a description of the reason for the Excess. A Non-removable Excess applies to all claims unless noted in the description that it only applies to certain claims.

Each Non-removable Excess is in addition to any Basic Excess or Tenant Excess you are required to contribute.

Excess per Incident

If you make a claim for loss or damage that is caused by separate Incidents, you will need to pay the applicable Excess(es) for each Incident.

This could occur if there are multiple occurrences of the same type of Insured Event. For example, if a Tenant deliberately breaks a window in one room and then deliberately breaks a window in another room, this would be considered two separate Incidents. You would need to pay a Tenant Damage Excess for each Incident.

It could also occur if two different Insured Events occur. For example, if an earthquake occurs causing damage to the roof, and later that day your Tenant accidentally spills wine which damages your carpet, you would need to pay the Basic Excess and a Non-removable Earthquake Excess for the roof damage and the Tenant Excess for the carpet damage.

Excess (continued)

Payment of Excess

We only provide cover under this Policy if the amount of the claim is more than the Excess payable.

You will only be required to pay an Excess if your claim is accepted. Where an Excess is payable, we will tell you the options for payment of the Excess, which may include:

- payment by you to us;
- deducting it from the amount we pay you under the claim; or
- payment by you to a supplier or repairer assisting with the claim.

Excess examples

Claim Type	Excess applicable
Example 1
Your Tenant has been evicted by a court order due to not paying Rent for 12 weeks.	Tenant Default Excess applies.	As this is a claim for Tenant Default only, this is the only Excess which will apply.
Example 2
Your Tenant has been evicted by a court order due to not paying Rent for 12 weeks and has stolen your Rental Furnishings from the Rental Property.	Tenant Default Excess and Tenant Theft/ Burglary Excess applies.	As this is a claim for Tenant Theft/ Burglary and Tenant Default both Excesses will apply.
Example 3
An earthquake fractures an internal wall of the Rental Property causing damage.	Basic Building Excess and Non-removable Earthquake Excess applies.	As the damage was caused by an Incident which a Non-removable Excess applies, this is in addition to the Basic Excess.
Example 4
Your Tenant has accidentally broken a window and deliberately damaged a door.	A Tenant Damage Excess applies for each Incident.	As this is two separate Incidents, a Tenant Damage Excess applies to the broken window and a separate Tenant Damage Excess applies to the damaged door.

Your Policy

Subject to the General Exclusions (see pages 47-54) and other terms and conditions set out in this PDS, under this Policy you can make claims for:

- Insured Events causing loss or damage to your Insured Property (Insured Events);
- Legal Liability (Legal Liability Cover);
- Additional Benefits applicable to your Insured Property (Additional Benefits); and/or
- Rental Property benefits (Rental Property benefits).

Unless specified otherwise in this PDS, each claim for any Incident is limited to the Sum Insured for the Insured Property under the Policy.

In addition, for some Incidents there will be a Specific Limit on the amount you can claim under this Policy (Specific Limit). Where a Specific Limit applies it is specified in the description of the relevant benefit.

A Specific Limit overrides the general limit of the Sum Insured and may result in the amount you can claim being below the minimum amounts prescribed by the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.

Claims – Making a claim

Here is how to make a claim under your Policy, including important factors we consider when working out how to pay for your claim.

Step 1 – Lodge your claim

Call us Monday to Friday 8.30am-5pm on 8202 4575.

When you make a claim, we will:

- ask you to give us relevant information to support your claim to make sure that an Incident has occurred, and we may ask you to:
 - establish proof of ownership by giving us details of when and where items were purchased, plus reasonable proof of ownership and reasonable proof of value;
 - give us written statements or any correspondence relating to the claim, including notice of any pending court proceedings or offers of settlement; and
 - meet with our investigators to be interviewed or give us access to relevant documents.
- tell you if an Excess is applicable and how to pay it;
- give you a claim number; and
- give you information on next steps.

So we can follow this process, you must:

- cooperate with RAA and our representatives including our investigators and loss adjusters; and
- help us with your claim and/or comply with any condition of this Policy, including if you need to go to court to give evidence.

Step 2 – Assessing your claim

When assessing your claim, we consider and determine the following:

- does your Policy cover the loss, damage or Theft?
- has the damage occurred as described and consistent with the Incident?
- is your claim affected by any Specific Limits, exclusions and conditions applicable to the Policy?

Step 3 – Settling your claim

When repair or replacement is available

If we accept your claim, subject to the below, we will repair your Insured Property. If we repair your Insured Property we will repair it with materials which are:

- new;
- available in Australia; and
- the nearest equivalent materials at the date of loss.

We will replace your Insured Property with As New items if the cost of repair would exceed our cost of replacing the property.

Cash payments when replacement or repair is available

At our discretion we may offer to pay you cash instead of replacing or repairing your Insured Property in circumstances where repair or replacement is available.

If you agree to accept our offer we will pay you in cash or vouchers:

- the amount it will Cost to repair the Insured Property with new materials which are available in Australia and are the nearest equivalent materials at the date of loss, less any discount available to us; or
- the amount it will Cost to replace the damaged Insured Property with As New items, less any discount available to us and adjusted for Depreciation, whichever is the lesser. If you do not accept our offer we will repair or replace your Insured Property in accordance with this PDS.

When repair or replacement is not available

If:

- we determine the repair or replacement would require the replacement of a part and a suitable like-for-like part is not available;
- we determine the safety, quality or reliability of repairs may be affected by the condition of the Insured Property before the Incident or damage to the Insured Property that arose before the Incident;
- a repair of your Insured Property authorised by us is not available within a reasonable timeframe;
- Your claim is for the repair or replacement of a fence that adjoins another person's property;
- the cost to repair or replace your Insured Property exceeds your Sum Insured or any specified limit for that Insured Property; or
- you have already replaced or repaired the Insured Property, where replacement or repair by you is authorised under this Policy or otherwise approved by us, we will pay you in cash or vouchers:

- the amount it will Cost to repair the Insured Property with new materials which are available in Australia and are the nearest equivalent materials at the date of loss; or
- the amount it will Cost to replace the damaged Insured Property with As New items, whichever is the lesser.

We may in some circumstances repair or replace part of your Insured Property and pay cash for the remainder.

All cash payments made by us are subject to the limits specified in this PDS.

Your Obligations

You are required to:

- pay any Excess or other contribution that applies;
- pay any outstanding Premium (including any remaining monthly instalments for the term of the Policy); and
- If applicable, help with any recovery action.

If you make a claim for loss or damage that is caused by separate Incidents, you will need to make a claim for each Incident and pay the applicable Excess(es), even if they are connected in some way. In circumstances where an Incident results in multiple Insured Events you will need to pay only the higher of your Building or Rental Furnishings Basic Excess. In addition, you will need to pay any applicable Non-removable Excess.

Claims – Common questions

Will your Premium go up on renewal because you made a claim?

We will not cancel your Policy during the term, unless your Insured Property is a Total Loss or one of the circumstances set out in page 57 applies.

Claims – How your claim is paid

Following are some examples of how we calculate claim payments. These examples do not form part of your Policy terms and conditions and are intended as a guide only as not all scenarios are covered.

Example 1 – Total Loss of Building and Rental Furnishings due to fire

Your Building and Rental Furnishings have been damaged by fire and consequently assessed and deemed a Total Loss. Your Certificate of Insurance shows the Sum Insured for the Building as $350,000 and Rental Furnishings as $80,000. The Basic Excess on your Policy is $300. Your outstanding premium is $700 for the term of insurance.

What we pay		Information
Building Sum Insured	$350,000*	As your Building is a Total Loss and you do not wish to rebuild at the same address, RAA pay you up to the Sum Insured.
Rental Furnishings Sum Insured	$80,000*	As all your Rental Furnishings have been destroyed, RAA pay you up to the Sum Insured.
Less Excess	-$300	Your Basic Excess is $300 as the loss was caused by one Incident, therefore only one Excess applies.
Less outstanding premium	-$700	As you are paying by monthly instalments we will deduct any remaining monthly instalment premiums for the term of insurance from the settlement amount.
Total claim	$429,000

If you have paid your Premium in full, there will be no refund of Premium.

See ‘Claims – Information’ on pages 55-57 for details.

Example 2 – (Permanent Rental only) Rent default and Malicious Damage by Tenant

You have evicted your Tenant by court order due to your Tenant not paying you Rent for 12 weeks and they have deliberately kicked holes in the interior walls of multiple Rooms in your Building causing $20,000 damage. The weekly Rent was $250 and the Bond money held was $1,000. Your Certificate of Insurance shows the Sum Insured for your Building as $250,000. The Tenant Default Excess on your Policy is $0. The Excess for Tenant Damage is $300.

What we pay		Information
Rent default	$3,000	12 weeks in Rent default at $250 per week equals $3,000.
Less Bond	-$200	Under the Loss of Rent – Tenant Default benefit, the claim will be reduced by the balance, if any, of any Bond remaining after deduction of any Re-letting Costs that you are legally entitled to collect from the Tenant’s Bond. In this instance $1,000 minus Re-letting Cost of $800 = $200 Bond money which is deducted from the Rent owned by your Tenant.
Tenant Malicious Damage repair Cost	$20,000	RAA pay this amount directly to the builder(s) responsible for undertaking the repairs to your Building.
Less Excess	-$300	Your Excess is $300 as the loss is Tenant Damage.
Total claim	$22,500

See ‘Claims – Information’ on pages 55-57 for details.

Claims – How your claim is paid (cont.)

Example 3 – Theft of Rental Furnishings (non-Tenant related)

Less Excess	-$100	Your Basic Excess is $100 for Rental Furnishings.
Total claim	$4,900

Example 4 – Theft of Rental Furnishings (by Tenant)

Rental Furnishings have been stolen by your Tenant. The replacement Cost of the stolen furnishings based on quotes you got and assessment by RAA was $5,000. Your Certificate of Insurance shows the Sum Insured for your Rental Furnishings as $60,000. The Excess for Tenant Theft/Burglary is $300.

What we pay		Information
Replacement Cost of stolen Rental Furnishings	$5,000	Paid to the suppliers who provide the replacement items to you.
Less Excess	-$300	Your Excess is $300 as the loss is a result of Tenant Theft/Burglary.
Total claim	$4,700

See ‘Claims – Information’ on pages 55-57 for details.

Example 5 – Storm damage to Building and Un-tenantable Rental Property benefit Short Stay (Holiday) Rental

Your Building has been damaged by Storm. You have 4 bookings confirmed over the next 8 weeks which have been paid for in advance at a rate of $400 per night. The first booking was due to commence in 2 days. The damage has resulted in the Rental Property being Un-tenantable for 9 weeks; this results in all of the bookings requiring cancellation and refund.

- Booking 1: 5 days in week 1 – $2,000 paid
- Booking 2: 8 days in week 3 – $3,200 paid
- Booking 3: 4 days in week 7 – $1,600 paid

Rent refund – booking 2	$3,200
Rent refund – booking 3	$1,600
Rent refund – booking 4	$1,600
Repair Cost (Storm damage)	$12,500	RAA pay this amount directly to the builder(s) responsible for undertaking the repairs to your Building.
Less Excess	-$300	Your Basic Excess is $300 as the loss was caused by one Incident, therefore only one Excess applies.
Total claim	$20,600
